Catalog description: Continued development of communicative competencies in the four language skills, with more emphasis on communication through reading and writing and continued exposure to cultures and customs. Prerequisite: Fren 2010 or equivalent.

Learning Objectives: Language learning is an enriching, never-ending process. Our goal is to increase proficiency levels in our French. Our objective is to improve communication skills expressing ourselves orally and in writing in French, in addition to learning factual knowledge, terminology, vocabulary, grammar, and cultural knowledge.

Textbook: Interaction: Langue et culture+ iLrn: Heinle Learning Center ISBN: 9781133612940 / 1133612946.

FREN 2020 covers second half of book and iLrn. Course code: RABJXN674 (or try FXMJ868)

Lab: This course has a significant lab component, allowing students to work at their own pace either in the language lab 004 Old Main or on their own computer. Most but, not all, Thursdays, and some other dates, will be devoted to online lab and this personalized computer assisted language learning. This requires the purchased textbook iLrn/Quia code. If you took 1020 last semester at USU your same code should work but you may have to set it up again. iLrn/Quia lab is due prior to 11:59pm the Monday following its listing. See site for dates, grades, announcements, and assignments. We do not use Canvas. Late work with valid excuse and -10%/week. You get 4 tries and best score is recorded. If you do not have a microphone use the lab for voice assignments. Go to: <http://hlc.quia.com/books>. QUIA starts on 1/21.

Tutors: Free tutors are assigned to our course. You must meet with the tutor once for 20 minutes this semester minimum. You must sign the “French Tutors” sheet on the bulletin board in the lab and say what you did. You may review grammar topics, get help with online homework, or just practice French conversation. This is part of your homework grade. You may visit them as many times as you wish, drop-in or email for appointment.

Quizlet.com is a free study tools site and you are required to create sets of flashcards with it, details TBA
