

Curriculum Vitae

Atsuko Neely

Personal Information:

Address: Dept. of Languages, Philosophy and Speech Communication, Utah State University, Logan Utah 84322-0720 USA

Email: atsuko.neely@usu.edu

Education:

1978-1979 Japanese Ministry of Culture, Japanese Language Instructor Seminars (2 summers)

1978 B.A. English and American Literature, Meiji Gakuin University, Tokyo, Japan

1980 Certificate of Completion, Teaching Japanese as a Second Language, Aoyama Gakuin University, Tokyo, Japan (2 year post graduate program) – M.A. equivalent

Teaching:

1978-1980 Instructor/ Language program coordinator, International Christian Youth Exchange, Tokyo, Japan

1981-1982 Instructor, Japanese language, Ohio University, Continuing Education, Athens, Ohio

1983-1984 Instructor, Japanese language, Kyoto Nihongo Center, Kyoto, Japan

1991-present Lecturer/Japanese Section Coordinator, Dept. of Languages, Philosophy and Speech Communication, Utah State University, Logan, Utah

1993-1997 Language instructor, National Guard, Logan, Utah

Course Regularly Teach:

Japanese Third year I (JAPN3010)

Japanese Third year II (JAPN3020)

Contemporary Japanese Culture and Society (JAPN3100)

Japanese Language for Business Environment(JAPN3510)

Japanese Film Studies (JAPN3560)

Introduction to Japanese Literature (JAPN3090)

Japanese Calligraphy (Art 3050/JAPA3050)

Japanese Tutoring (JAPN4920)

Course Previously Taught:

Second Language Education (graduate level)

Service:

Section Coordinator: Japanese section

Adviser: the USU Japan Club

Faculty Adviser: Asian Studies Program

Related Work Experience:

1983-1984 Translator/Interpreter, Career Staff International, Inc., Osaka, Japan, worked on multi-national construction project, Hong Kong Shanghai Bank

1990-present Free-lance translator

2006 Judge, Arizona Statewide Japanese Speech Contest

2006-2007 Co-developer, KANJIRU (Chinese character Search software)

2002-present Judge, JET (Japan Exchange and Teaching Program) - Japanese government exchange program organized by Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan

Grants:

Research Grant, $3,500, US-Japan Center of Utah development teaching materials for Business Japanese

Visiting Artist Grant, $5,840, Marie Eccles Caine Foundation for "In the Spirit of Kabuki event

Development Grant, $1,600, Utah State Office of Education, organized teacher education workshop for teachers of Japanese language

Seed Grant, $5,329.52, Office of Global Engagement, USU, development of summer study abroad program for Japanese language and culture

Professional Organizations:

ACTFL (American Council on Teaching of Foreign Languages) - member

ATJ (Association of Teachers of Japanese) - member

NCJLT (National Council of Japanese Language Teachers) - member

IMATJ (Inter-Mountain Association of Teachers of Japanese) - past president

UFLA (Utah Foreign Language Association) - past executive board member