Important Guidelines, Policies and Reminders:

1. Less than a C on any assignment, quiz, or exam requires immediate attention. The student must see the instructor to detect and clarify problem areas and discuss ways to improve his/her work/grade.

2. Learning to speak ANY language can only happen when the learner is willing to try and feels comfortable enough to err sometimes. Effort and engagement in classroom activities is what counts towards a good participation grade. Sometimes the instructor will offer a correction to your speech if it will help with communication or if the error involves exactly what we are practicing in that particular day. Such correction only means that you are doing a great job speaking in class and your instructor is giving you a pointer on how to communicate even more effectively. It is important that students offer each other respect so that the atmosphere in the classroom supports the learning process of all. Please speak with your instructor outside of class if you have any concern related to class performance or about ways to accomplish your goals in the course.

3. Students with disability: The Americans with Disabilities Act states: “Reasonable accommodation will be provided for all persons with disabilities in order to ensure equal participation within the program. If a student has a disability that will likely require some accommodation by the instructor, the student must contact the instructor and document the disability through the Disability Resource Center, preferably during the first week of the course. Any request for special consideration relating to attendance, pedagogy, taking of examinations, etc., must be discussed with and approved by the instructor. In cooperation with the Disability Resource Center, course materials can be provided in alternative format-larger print, audio, diskette, or Braille.” All accommodations are coordinated through the Disability Resource Center (DRC) in Room 101 of the University Inn, 797-2444 voice, 797-0740 TTY, or toll free at 1-800-259-2966. Please contact the DRC as early in the semester as possible.

4. Sexual Harassment: Sexual harassment is defined by the Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity Commission as any “unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature.” If you feel you are a victim of sexual harassment, you may talk to or file a complaint with the Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Office, located in Old Main, Room 161, or call the office at 797-1266.

5. Academic Integrity: As per USU policy on Academic Integrity “Each student has the right and duty to pursue his or her academic experience free of dishonesty. The Honor System is designed to establish the higher level of conduct expected and required of all Utah State University student.” Students who violate university rules on academic integrity are subject to disciplinary penalties. Academic dishonesty/misconduct shall include, but not be limited to, disruption of classes, threatening the instructor or a fellow student in an academic setting, giving or receiving of unauthorized aid on examinations or in the preparation of reports, notebooks or other assignments, knowingly misrepresenting the source of any academic work and/or plagiarizing of another’s work, or otherwise acting dishonestly for the purpose of obtaining/changing grades. For more detail information on academic honesty policies, please see the USU Student Code of Conduct at http://www.usu.edu/studentservices/studentcode/article5.cfm#secV3

University Standard: Academic Integrity

Students have a responsibility to promote academic integrity at the University by not participating in or facilitating others’ participation in any act of academic dishonesty and by reporting all violations or suspected violations of the Academic Integrity Standard to their instructors.

The Honor Pledge—To enhance the learning environment at Utah State University and to develop student academic integrity, each student agrees to the following Honor Pledge: “I pledge, on my honor, to conduct myself with the foremost level of academic integrity.”

Violations of the Academic Integrity Standard (academic violations) include, but are not limited to:

1. Cheating: (1) using or attempting to use or providing others with any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, examinations, or in any other academic exercise or activity, including working in a group when the instructor has designated that the quiz, test, examination, or any other academic exercise or activity be done “individually”; (2) depending on the aid of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; (3) substituting for another student, or permitting another student to substitute for oneself, in taking an examination or preparing academic work; (4) acquiring tests or other academic material belonging to a faculty member, staff member, or another student without express permission; (5) continuing to write after time has been called on a quiz, test, examination, or any other academic exercise or activity; (6) submitting substantially the same work for credit in more than one class, except with prior approval of the instructor; or (7) engaging in any form of research fraud.

2. Falsification: altering or fabricating any information or citation in an academic exercise or activity.

3. Plagiarism: representing, by paraphrase or direct quotation, the published or unpublished work of another person as one’s own in any academic exercise or activity without full and clear acknowledgment. It also includes using materials prepared by another person or by an agency engaged in the sale of term papers or other academic materials.
Further details information on academic honesty policies and consequences for violations of University Standard can be found at http://catalog.usu.edu/content.php?catoid=4&navoid=547

Note on Plagiarism: Plagiarism is a very serious matter and, in some forms, is a violation of the law. Students have been expelled from the university for engaging in acts of plagiarism. The policy in response to an initial act of plagiarism by a student is to give the student an "F" grade for the plagiarized assignment and to insert a note in the student's Departmental and University files indicating the nature of the plagiarism act. A second act of plagiarism in the same course will result in an "automatic" receipt of a grade of "F" for the course.

6. Attendance and Participation Policy:

Participation: Learning to function in another language requires that the learner spend a great deal of time in active contact with the target language and—if at all possible—culture (music, film, video, etc.). To that end daily attendance is crucial, and the instructor will note active participation on a daily basis. As a courtesy to all, students shall not use the time in classroom to read outside materials nor use personal computers, iPods, iPhones, cellular phones and/or any other electronic devices. Phones should be “off” during class period. If you have a situation requiring an adjustment to this policy, please discuss this with the instructor. Background noise(s) due to loud conversation(s) between or among students is not appreciated by the instructor (or by other students) and may affect students’ participation grade. Some of your work will be completed individually while other assignments will be completed collaboratively. It is the student’s responsibility to document any problems within his/her collaborative group and to discuss these problems with the instructor should they arise.

Class Participation: Frequency and Quality

A (10 points) = Attends class regularly and always participates;
B (8 points) = Attends class regularly and sometimes participates;
C (7 points) = Attends class regularly but rarely participates;
D (5 points) = Attends class regularly but never participates;
F (0 to 4 points) = Does not attend class regularly and never participates.

Attendance:

1. More than two unexcused absences by the student will result thereafter in one point (1) reduction per absence (up to 5) for attendance grade. Any student who misses 5 classes beyond the 2 absences allowed during the semester will automatically receive an “F” grade for the course. An exception to the attendance policy is students who travel with the university (i.e. athletes, ambassadors, etc.).
2. Tardiness is neither appreciated nor welcomed; three tardies = 1 absent day. If the student plans to miss any class period, s/he must contact the instructor beforehand, and must turn in any homework before the due date since after that no late work will be accepted. It is the student’s responsibility to collect missed handouts, assignment sheets, and other materials made available during his/her absence.

3. Excused absences will not affect the attendance and participation grade. Should illness or emergency prevent attendance, please notify the instructor promptly by phone or e-mail.

4. If the student must miss an exam for a valid reason (please note: a family vacation, a friend’s wedding, his/her honeymoon, etc. are NOT valid reasons), the instructor may allow the student to take the exam early if there is advance notice. If you miss any exam without letting the instructor know in advance that you will miss an exam, you must notify the instructor as soon as possible. The instructor will ask you to prove your emergency. Failure to adhere to this policy will result in a zero for the missed exam.

Much of your learning will occur as a result of your attendance and participation. Class participation includes asking appropriate questions and sharing comments with the class, bringing materials for in-class work, and attending the lectures. I hold very high expectations for all students. Students are expected to look alert, take notes, and think about the ideas presented in class. Simply being in class is insufficient for learning, but being absent from class, either mentally or physically, will certainly prevent you from learning. In-class assignments will be part of the class format. Missed class activities and assignments may not be made up unless under unusual circumstances. It is the student’s obligation to find out what missed if absent. Students must obtain missed lecture notes, handouts and any other classroom materials from their peers.

Class conduct: I will treat you with respect and I expect you to extend the same respect toward your classmates and me. Absolutely NO discriminatory remarks about or behavior directed toward a person’s race, creed, religion, national origin, age, sex or disability will be tolerated in the classroom. As indicated in the Student Code of Conduct “Faculty members of Utah State University have the responsibility and authority to determine, maintain, and enforce an atmosphere in their classrooms that is conducive to teaching and learning, in accordance with University policy and practice.” See: http://www.usu.edu/studentservices/studentcode/article5.cfm#secV3

Disciplinary action, including student removal from classroom, will be taken by instructor for disrespectful and/or disruptive classroom behavior by student(s).
7. Exams and Quizzes will not be given on a make-up basis, except in the case of a documented/medical excuse. For missed quizzes and exams the instructor will record the student’s grade as zero (0). Quizzes will be given and corrected in class to help students assess their learning between tests.

8. Homework: the instructor will check assignments periodically. They MUST be done at home so the student can clarify doubts during class period. NO LATE assignments will be accepted. There will be no exceptions.

9. Writing assignments are brief compositions for which the student MUST use a word-processor. These compositions also need be double-spaced, typed in font 12. They will be graded on the basis of creativity and originality, structure, clarity, use of new vocabulary, and mechanics. The instructor will NOT accept handwritten and/or single-spaced assignments. As a courtesy to your instructor, please staple all pages. NO assignment will be accepted after the due date.

10. See Canvas for due dates.

11. Oral Presentations are to be performed in Portuguese. They will be graded on the basis of organization, pronunciation, grammar, vocabulary, content, and communication effectiveness. If students use PP for his/her presentation(s), a copy of the slides must be given in advance to the instructor.

   1. Make sure to prepare your presentation ahead of time. Please do not prepare for it in class during another student’s presentation.
   2. Class size may require short presentations (approx. 5 min. per student) and may take place over two or three class periods. Once the student signs up for a particular day s/he will be hold responsible for having the presentation ready that day. No late presentations will be assigned. Please plan your presentations carefully in order not to go over your allotted time.
   3. Presentation topics need to be approved by the instructor.
   4. Questions? If you have any, please see the instructor to clarify assignment(s).
12. Grading:
