Applying for Communication Studies Major

Students majoring in Communication Studies are encouraged to earn a BA degree by completing two years of study in a foreign language. This broadens cultural and social awareness and can increase one’s understanding of the nature of language in general.

Admission to the Communication Studies major will be limited to 70 students each year. Admission decisions will be based on (1) satisfactory speaking and writing competencies, (2) academic record, (3) ability of this program to prepare the student for intended career, (4) realistic career or professional study objective, and (5) motivation and creativity demonstrated by class performance, work experience, volunteer activities, and other means offered by the student during the application process.

Students not admitted may apply the following semester. If not admitted on the second application, the student will be permitted to complete a minor, but will not be considered again for the major.

To obtain guidelines for applying to the Communication Studies major, contact the Department of Languages, Philosophy, and Communication Studies, Main 204, (435) 797-1211.
