

Organizational Communication Minor Requirements (15 credits)

(2.75 GPA required to apply for Communication Studies Minors)

11/6/2015

See bottom of this page for information about applying to the Organizational Communication Minor

As many as 6 credits completed at other colleges or universities may be used to partially satisfy these requirements. At least 6 of the 15 total credits must be completed in courses offered at the 3000 level or above. For more information, students should contact the department academic advisor. Students must earn an overall GPA of at least 2.5 in all classes applied to the minor.

A. Communication in Organizational Settings: (6 credits)

CMST 1020	Public Speaking (BHU)	3
CMST 2120	Small Group Communication (HR)	3
CMST 3050	Technical and Professional Communication (DSS)	3
CMST 3140	Communication in Family Context	3
CMST 3250	Organizational Communication (CI)	3
CMST 3500	Communication and Leadership	3
CMST 4350	Organizations and Social Change	3

B. Elective Communication Courses: (9 Credits)

CMST 2110	Interpersonal Communication (BHU/HR)	3
CMST 2270	Argumentation and Debate	3
CMST 3270	Culture and Public Discourse	3
CMST 3330	Intercultural Communication (DSS)	3
CMST 3400	Persuasion (CI)	3
CMST 3600	Communication and Conflict	3
CMST 3700	Introduction to Health Communication (CI).....	3
CMST 4200	Language, Thought and Action	3
CMST 4250	Advanced Internship/Co-op	1-6
CMST 4330	Communication in Global Era	3
CMST 4430	Negotiation in a Global World	3
CMST 4460	Communication Criticism	3
CMST 5250	Communication, Social Justice and the Environment..	3
CMST 5300	Visual Rhetoric	3
CMST 5400	Advanced Persuasion	3

Up to three internship credits (CMST 2250 or CMST 4250)

Applying for a Communication Studies Minor – Organizational Communication

Admission to a Communication Studies minor will be limited to 30 students each year. Admission decisions will be based on the following:

- (1) Satisfactory speaking and writing competencies,
- (2) Academic record,
- (3) Ability of this program to prepare the student for intended career,
- (4) Realistic career or professional study objective, and
- (5) Motivation and creativity demonstrated by class performance, work experience, volunteer activities, and other means offered by the student during the application process.

Students not admitted may apply the following semester. To obtain guidelines for applying to a Communication Studies minor, contact the Department of Languages, Philosophy, and Communication Studies, Main 204 B, (435) 797-1211.