Course Overview:

Welcome to Korean 3010. The class focuses on the exercises of reading, listening, writing, and discussing on various topics related to contemporary Korean and Korean cultures. In addition to the course readings, this course will use video to help you not only hear but also see live Korean expressions. Classes are mostly conducted in Korean.

Course Objectives:

After completing this course, you should be able to

1. Satisfy social demands and school or work requirements and handle a wide variety of communicative tasks (including practical Korean) using appropriate speech skill (Speaking).
2. Understand main ideas and most details of connected discourse on a variety of factual topics (Listening).
3. Understand main ideas and create equivalent descriptions (Reading).
4. Write the letters, e-mails, essays, etc (Writing).

Course Materials and Resources:

1. Videos: Selected Korean TV programs for studying language and culture
2. Selected books
3. Internet: Selected websites as resources for student presentations

Assignments:

- 1) Textbook Exercises
Refer to the weekly schedule for the textbook exercises of the week. Complete your exercises in a word processing program and submit via Canvas assignment.
- 2) Let's Speak Korean
Twice a week, watch these sitcoms. Then summarize each episode in Korean. and submit your summary through Canvas. The summary of each episode need to be an half page length of letter size.
- 3) Arirang special topics
Every other week, watch the 25-minute video clips listed in the weekly schedule. I will give you a questionnaire that relates to the video clip. You are expected to fill out and submit the questionnaire through Canvas.
- 4) Oral Interview Exams (Midterm & Final)
The midterm and final exams will be oral interviews, which will take place at a scheduled time in my office or over the phone. I will refer to the textbook for the oral interview exams. Basically, I will ask you each chapter's pre-reading and discussion parts. The schedule will be arranged individually, attempting to find a time that is convenient for you.
- 5) Two individual presentations
You will be expected to create two individual PowerPoint presentations on an assigned topic. The basic requirements are these:
 - a. 7slides and more (One title slide plus four additional slides)
 - b. 5 pictures and more
 - c. PPT presentation submitted to me via Canvas.
- 6) Tutoring
I need to figure out each student's schedule. I will give you updates on what you need to do for this.

The required format for all assignments is MS Word (.doc). Assignments should be turned in by 9:00 pm each due date if not specified differently in the schedule. Late submissions will be penalized with a 2-point deduction per day of delay. As we all understand, working with technology very frequently entails unexpected problems. So make sure to be prepared in advance.
