BA

Bachelor of Arts Degree Language Requirement

A Bachelor of Arts (BA) degree signifies proficiency in one or more foreign languages. Specifically, the BA requirement may be completed in one of the following ways:

Demonstration of proficiency in one foreign language by successful completion of one course at the 2020-level or higher (or its equivalent).

Or

Demonstration of proficiency in American Sign Language by successful completion of COMD 4920 and COMD 4780, and by passing an ASL Proficiency exam and an interview.

Or

Demonstration of proficiency in two foreign languages by successful completion of the 1020 course level in one language and the 2010 course level in the second language (or its equivalent).

Or

Completion of an upper-division (3000-level or higher) foreign language grammar or literature course requiring the 2020 course level (or its equivalent) as a prerequisite. Conversation courses cannot be considered for satisfying this requirement.

For nonnative English-speaking students only, the following options are available:

Successful completion of the Intensive English Language Institute (IELI) program for international students.

Or

TOEFL, Michigan, or IELI placement scores high enough to meet the University admission criteria.

Credits in minor (if required)

Credits in American Institutions (ECN 1500, HIST 1700, HIST 2700 or HIST 2710, HONR 1300, POLS 1100, or USU 1300) General Education Requirements and University Studies Depth Requirements. | 3 |
University Requirement Information as a Chinese major:

Students must complete the General Education Requirements.

Students must also complete the University Studies Depth Requirements:
- CHIN 3540 will fulfill a Communications Intensive (CI) requirement.
- Complete at least 2 credits in approved 3000-level or above courses from each of the following two categories: Life and Physical Sciences (DSC) and Social Sciences (DSS)

Chinese Minor – Teaching Emphasis without Secondary School Licensure

Minor (19 credits)

(2.5 GPA required in major or minor classes)

It is possible to have a teaching emphasis within a minor in Chinese without receiving Secondary School teaching licensure. However, unless the student is an elementary education major, he or she would not be able to teach in Utah public schools (nor at many private ones). Graduating without licensure may allow employment at community colleges and universities.

In order to complete a Chinese Minor – Teaching Emphasis without Secondary School Licensure it is 19 credits. Students must fulfill all of the requirements listed under Section I, A & B. (Chinese and Linguistics Courses) of the Chinese Minor – for a total of 19 credits. (One exception is the LING 3300 for the teaching minor is not required if doing non-licensure Chinese Teaching).

Secondary Teacher Education Program (STEP) – Languages, Philosophy, and Communication Studies (29 credits)

(Courses noted in red are already counted in the Chinese Teaching Minor List. Courses in black are the official STEP required courses hence 29 cr.)
