Courses for Spanish Majors and Minors require a minimum of C- or better.

Courses for Spanish Majors and Minors may not be taken on a Pass/Fail Basis (except for courses designated as Pass/Fail, such as SCED 3301, SCED 4301, SPAN 3010, SPAN 3520 and SPAN 4920).

At least half (50 percent) of the credits earned for these degrees must be completed in upper-division USU courses offered by the LPCS department and having prefixes of SPAN or LING. All other credits (including transfer and study abroad credits) must be approved by the Spanish faculty in order to be counted toward these degrees.

Bachelor of Arts Degree Language Requirement

A Bachelor of Arts (BA) degree signifies proficiency in one or more foreign languages. Specifically, the BA requirement may be completed in one of the following ways:

- Demonstration of proficiency in one foreign language by successful completion of one course at the 2020-level or higher (or its equivalent).
- Demonstration of proficiency in American Sign Language by successful completion of COMD 4920 and COMD 4780, and by passing an exit interview.
- Demonstration of proficiency in two foreign languages by successful completion of the 1020 course level in one language and the 2010 course level in the second language (or its equivalent).
- Completion of an upper-division (3000-level or higher) foreign language grammar or literature course requiring the 2020 course level (or its equivalent) as a prerequisite. Conversation courses cannot be considered for satisfying this requirement.

For nonnative English-speaking students only, the following options are available:

- Successful completion of the Intensive English Language Institute (IELI) program for international students.
- TOEFL, Michigan, or IELI placement scores high enough to meet the University admission criteria.

General Education Requirements and University Studies Depth Requirements

Notes

1. Only 3 credits maximum in practicum courses may count toward a Spanish major or minor.
2. This course or practicum is required for a teaching emphasis in the Spanish major or minor.
3. Students desiring to apply study abroad credits toward these degrees must obtain approval from the LPCS office prior to participating.
4. SCED 4300 and LING 5400 must be taken during the same semester and should be the last courses taken for the major. These courses should be taken the fall semester before student teaching. SCED 4300 and LING 5400 are listed in both the STEP and major requirements for those seeking the Spanish Teaching major/non-licensure so the non-licensure majors understand the complete list of requirements. See additional non-licensure information at bottom of page.
5. At least two literature courses such as: 3600, 3610, 3620, 3630, 3640, 3650 or 3660 must be completed before taking SPAN 4900, 4910 or 4930.
6. This course can be taken before application and acceptance into SCED STEP program.
7. This course is repeatable for additional credit.
