Dubbed as the cultural city of Taiwan, Taichung is the third largest city in Taiwan. Taichung gives you a blend of a traditional laid-back and friendly atmosphere to explore and get around in, while at the same time offering all the benefits and conveniences of a modern city. Our prime location in Taichung allows you to experience true Taiwanese culture right out the front gate. There’s always a place to explore that’s close, convenient, and cheap. Students will have the opportunity to engage in rich cultural and academic activities as they attend Chaoyang University of Technology.
