FRENCH LANGUAGE

This faculty-led program takes students to France for intensive language study and cultural immersion. Students will spend four weeks in the South of France, more specifically in Antibes, for a four-week program of study in the Centre International d’Antibes (CIA) where students will be instructed by local teachers of the academy. As a result, students will have the opportunity to completely immerse themselves in a beautiful area of France and to work intensely on their French language skills both in and out of the classroom.
